

Researching MCPHS Alumni on LinkedIn

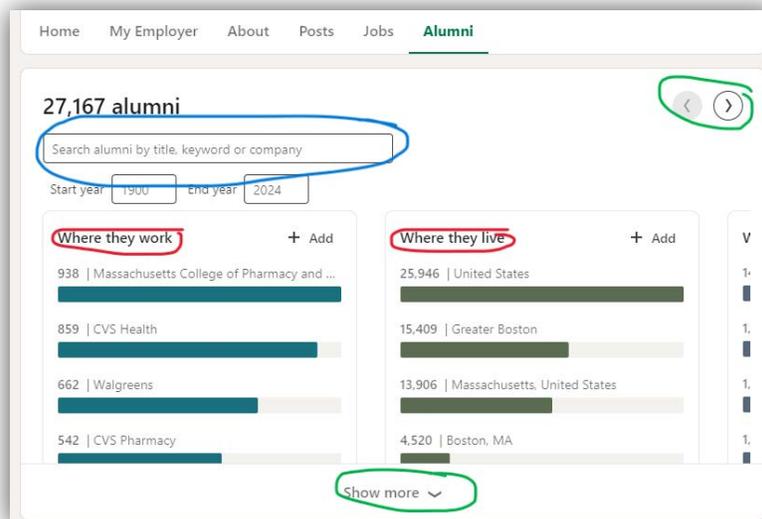

1. Log into your LinkedIn account.
2. In the search box at the top of the page, type “Massachusetts College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences,” then hit enter to go to the MCPHS LinkedIn page.

3. On the MCPHS page, you’ll see an index below the MCPHS banner. Click on “Alumni.”

4. This will bring you to the MCPHS alumni search page. From here, you can search for alumni via the search bar or by clicking on the listed categories below the search bar.

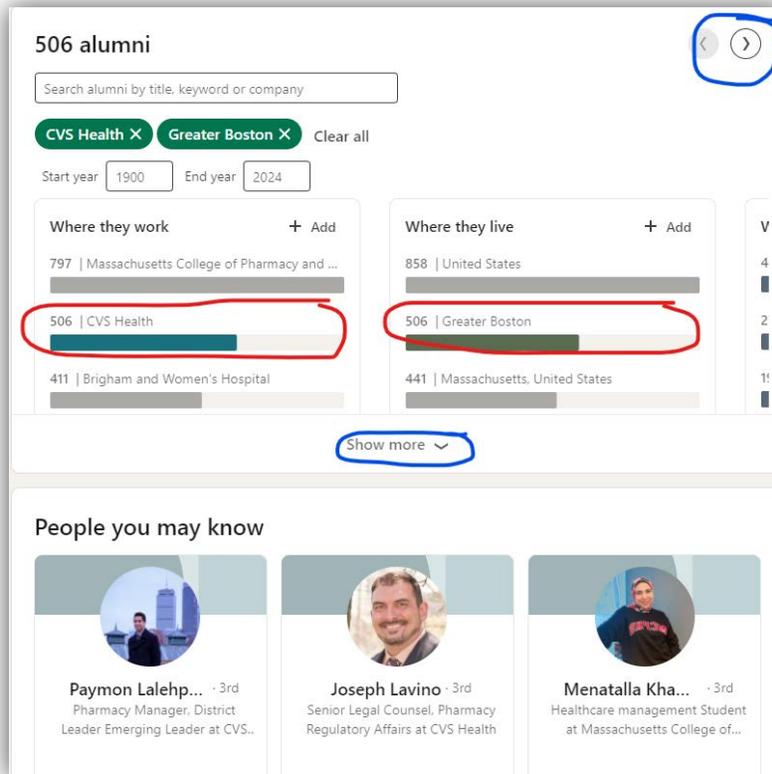

Searching via categories: Results are also filtered into categories to show where alumni work, where they live, what they do, their skills, and what they studied. Click results in these categories to further filter your results.

Searching via the search bar: Search for alumni by name, title, keyword, or company by using the search bar. Clicking on the arrows will show additional categories to browse through. See the following pages for more information on searching and browsing.

5. Browsing and filtering using categories on the alumni page.

You can directly click on the filters from the main alumni page to browse through different categories. Click on the arrows to find additional categories. You can select multiple categories to further refine your results. This is helpful for finding alumni who may work at specific companies or in certain geographic areas that you have interest in.

- For example, to see all alumni who work for CVS Health in the Greater Boston Area, you can click on “CVS Health” and “Greater Boston Area” to pull up alumni associated with CVS Health in Greater Boston. Their profiles will appear in the “People you may know” section below the search field.

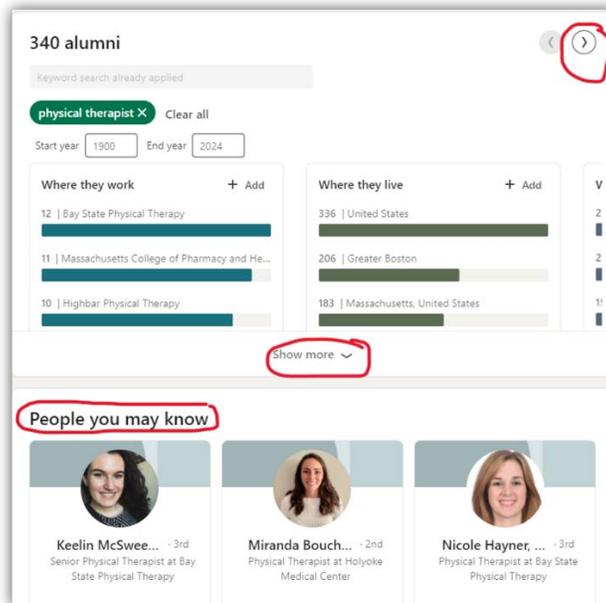

6. Searching via the search bar.

If you want to search on a specific name, title, keyword, or company, type it into the search bar.

- For example, typing “physical therapist” into the search bar will bring up MCPHS alumni who have the keywords “physical therapist” in their profile. It will filter results by where they work, where they live, what they do, and what they studied. Click on the arrows and the “show more” button to see more results.
- The results will also bring up a “People you may know” section underneath the search section, which will allow you to see profiles of alumni who have the keyword “physical therapist” in their profile.

7. Click on different categories to further refine your search. This is helpful for finding alumni who may work at specific companies or in certain geographic areas that you have interest in.

- For example, if you want to find physical therapists at Bay State Physical Therapy, click on the “Bay State Physical Therapy” name under the “Where they work” section to identify alumni associated with that company. You can further filter results by location, what they do, and so forth, by clicking on additional categories.
- Profiles of alumni who fit the search results will appear in the “People you may know” section below the search field.
