

2026 - 2027 Dependent Support Form

Student Name _____ MCPHS ID _____

On the 2026-2027 FAFSA, the student is considered independent solely due to the student claiming to support one or more legal dependents. This support is detailed in the following manner:

- You, the student, will provide more than half of your child's/children's support from July 1, 2026 through June 30, 2027. The child must live with you unless experiencing a qualifying temporary absence under IRS code, such as living apart due to college enrollment. Note that unborn children may not be considered.
- You, the student, currently reside with and provide more than half of other individuals' financial support; you will continue to reside with and provide more than half of their support through June 30, 2027.

If either of the above statements is true, please detail the means by which you will support your dependents. If neither of the above statements is true, please confirm that an error was made and correct the 2026-2027 FAFSA by logging on to FAFSA.gov, changing the dependency question to 'No', adding parent financial and demographic information, and resubmitting the FAFSA to us. Regardless of the outcome, please submit this completed form to us. Please use the space below to describe the situation:
