

2022 - 2023 Dependent Support Form

Student Name _____ MCPHS ID _____

On the 2022-2023 FAFSA, the student is considered independent solely due to the student claiming to support the student's children or other dependents. This support is detailed in the following manner:

- You, the student, will provide more than half of your child's/children's support from July 1, 2022 through June 30, 2023, even if the child/children do not live with you.
- You, the student, currently reside with and provide more than half of other individuals' financial support; you will continue to reside with and provide more than half of their support through June 30, 2023.

If either of the above statements is true, please detail the means by which you will support your dependents. If neither of the above statements is true, please confirm that an error was made and correct the 2022-2023 FAFSA by logging on to FAFSA.gov, changing the dependency questions to 'No', adding parent financial and demographic information, and resubmitting the FAFSA to us. Regardless of the outcome, please submit this completed form to us. Please use the space below to describe the situation:
